

Washington, DC – Congressman Rob Wittman (VA-1) today applauded the introduction of AmericaSpeakingOut.Com, an effort by House Republicans to engage the American people in the process of building a new policy agenda for America. Through America Speaking Out, the American people will be given a voice in setting the priorities for a national agenda, and through this new communications tool, all Americans will have an opportunity to be a part of this effort."

More and more, Virginians want their voices heard in Washington, DC, and this site will serve both as an outlet and a listening portal," Wittman said. "Just today, I shared some of the opinions of my constituents on the House Floor, who are concerned about out-of-control government spending. Discussions about the direction of this nation should not happen behind closed doors but in an honest, transparent forum. Every American can make a difference in Washington, DC, and I encourage everyone to visit AmericaSpeakingOut.com and share their ideas on the economy, government spending, health care or other topics critical to the future of this nation."
